

‘thyssenkrupp has a long and illustrious tradition of supporting academia, and we are glad to be able to support OYCE once again,’ said Mr VK Joshi, Sr General Manager and Head Business Development, addressing the gathering at OYCE 2020, the Outstanding Young Chemical Engineers Competition, organized by the Indian Institute of Chemical Engineers (IIChE) Mumbai Chapter and the Institute of Chemical Technology (ICT) at the latter’s campus in Mumbai. Mr Joshi was speaking in the capacity of Chief Guest at the Valedictory Session of the 13th edition of OYCE, which elicited a good response in the Working Professionals and Undergraduate categories. Going on to state that the foundation of any institution or field lies in education and students, he commended the participants for taking part in this forum.

Earlier Mr JP Soni, Sr General Manager and Head Process, participated in the Experts’ Panel Discussion on ‘Emerging Trends in the Chemical Industry’. Soni is a member of the National Advisory Committee of the IIChE.

thyssenkrupp Industrial Solutions India was Sponsor for the Working Professional Category of the Competition. More images overleaf...

