

And now an award in the Corporate Sector! thyssenkrupp wins Dun & Bradstreet Award in SME segment...

We have been declared Winners in the Professional Business Services Category in Mid-Corporate segment at the Dun & Bradstreet SME Awards 2019. The award, was received by Mr KS Rao, CSO & ED – Refineries, Petrochemicals & Industrial Services at the hands of Mr Pratap Chandra Sarangi, the Hon Minister of State for Micro & Small and Medium Enterprises (SME), Animal Husbandry, Dairy & Fisheries at New Delhi recently.

The award was conferred after a nationwide evaluation of organisations applying. Criteria included business model, proof of operational excellence, achievements in the year 2019, financial results and other parameters.

The award reiterates our reputation as a first rate company and business partner with a strong financial base, good credit rating, ethically sound business practices, good customer base and offering reliable and sustainable business solutions.

The award follows awards won for chemical engineering, export performances, R&D, Indo German economic relations and communication.

Mr KS Rao, CSO & ED – Refineries, Petrochemicals & Industrial Services receives the Dun & Bradstreet award from Mr Sarangi, Minister of State for Micro & SME. At extreme left is Mr Manish Sinha, MD Dun & Bradstreet